

«Английский язык. Чтение прессы»

Вопросы и ответы из теста по Английскому языку. Чтение прессы с сайта oltest.ru.

Общее количество вопросов: 77

Тест по предмету «Английский язык. Чтение прессы».

1. "A deputy editor" in this context means ...
 - an editor who is next in rank to the head editor
2. "Array" in this context means ...
 - an ordered group
3. "Collaboration" in this context means ...
 - cooperation
4. "Conceivable" in this context means ...
 - that can be believed
5. "Conventional" in this context means...
 - following accepted custom and standards
6. "Counterpart" in this context means ...
 - a person that does the same job as another in a different system
7. "Demand" in this context means ...
 - claim
8. "Draft" in this context means ...
 - the first rough of smth written
9. "Drapes" in this context means...
 - long thick curtains
10. "In every other respect" in this context means ...
 - in all the details and particular points
11. "In this regard" in this context means...
 - in connection or relation
12. "Incomprehension" in this context means...
 - the act of misunderstanding
13. "Invoking" in this context means ...
 - calling
14. "Magical setting" in this context means ...
 - a mysterious background, set of surroundings
15. "Not enough room" in this context means ...
 - not enough space
16. "Obsolete" in this context means...
 - no longer used

17. "Odd" in this context means ...
• unusual and peculiar
18. "The minutes" in this context means ...
• an official written record of what is said at the meeting
19. "The opening number" in this context means ...
• the first song
20. "To abandon" in this context means...
• to give up or bring an end to smth
21. "To be itching to smth" in this context means ...
• to want very much to do smth soon
22. "To be out of touch" in this context means ...
• to have different ideas, not to understand
23. "To capture" in this context means ...
• to take control
24. "To come near the end" in this context means ...
• to be next to finish
25. "To come under attack" in this context means...
• to be widely criticized
26. "To establish" in this context means ...
• to begin, create
27. "To insist" in this context means ...
• to declare
28. "To occur" in this context means...
• to happen, take place
29. "To provide" in this context means ...
• to cause or arrange
30. "To put smbd on the spot" in this context means...
• in a position of having to make the right answer or decision
31. "To reach agreement" in this context means...
• to come to the state of having the same opinion
32. "To reverse" in this context means...
• to change to the opposite
33. "To submit" in this context means ...
• to offer to consideration
34. "To trade on smth" in this context means ...
• to take advantage
35. "A complex issue", according to Bush's words is ...
• a view of immigration reform

36. 18 pictures of celebrities in swimwear on holiday this month had been used by ...
• the *Daily Mail
37. A suitably magical setting was provided by ...
• the natural church's setting
38. America's 43rd president ...
• did not restrict pomp and circumstance for his friend
39. Bjork is ...
• a pop star
40. Bjork is experimenting with ...
• instrumentation and alternative modes of presentation
41. Bjork's singing style is marked by...
• the ritual mangling of English vowel
42. Both sides decided ...
• to conclude an agreement on investment promotion and protection
43. Chief Dube Onyia ...
• guaranteed to sponsor a private sector matchmaking mission
44. Cooperation on drug trafficking and organized crime ...
• is one of the advances
45. Fox declared that ...
• legalizing the status of illegal Mexican workers can be achieved
46. Mexican President Vicente Fox ...
• paid a state visit to the US on Wednesday
47. Mexican President Vicente Fox insisted ...
• that his nation and the United States must reach agreement on immigration reform
48. Neil Wallis is ...
• the Editor of the *Sunday People
49. Nigeria and Angola ...
• want to reverse the low volume of trade between them
50. St. John's ...
• is the place where Bjork's performance took place
51. The 1977 bilateral trade agreement ...
• was agreed to be reviewed because it was considered obsolete
52. The best ending sentence for the text is ...
• He also said the two nations have a chance to build "a new century of the Americas"
53. The best title for the text will be ...
• Are tabloids the leaders or the led?
54. The best title for the text will be ...
• Fox pushes for migrants pact by end of year

55. The best title for the text will be ...

- Mysterious Oddness

56. The best title for the text will be ...

- Nigeria, Angola reach pact on bilateral trade

57. The genre of this article is ...

- the report

58. The genre of this article is ...

- the review

59. The Joint Commission ...

- decided the two countries should establish a bilateral chamber of commerce

60. The key sentence of the text is ...

- His reply was that the tabloids succeed only when they capture the mood of the people, and that they are punished when they don't – their readers stop buying them

61. The key sentence of the text is ...

- Now she has abandoned the trappings of pop entirely ...

62. The local delegation said ...

- the financial sector of the country had been deregulated

63. The text is about ...

- a visit of the Mexican leader to the US

64. The text is about ...

- Bjork's show

65. The text is about ...

- Nigeria and Angola's relationship and cooperation

66. The text is about ...

- the tabloids and their relations with the reader

67. The third paragraph starts with the sentence ... and ends with the sentence ...

- According to the minutes, both sides decided ... In that regard, Nigeria submitted a new draft ...

68. This article is taken from ...

- arts rubric
- media rubric

69. This article is taken from ...

- international news section

70. This article is taken from ...

- political news rubric

71. This text is from ...

- a broadsheet

72. This text is from ...

- a Sunday paper

73. This text is from ...

- a tabloid

74. Wallis and other tabloid editors ...

- are more dangerous than the judges

75. Wallis campaigned against the early release of Jon Venables and Robert Thompson, because ...

- he is used to upsetting liberal opinion

76. Wallis is an important figure, because ...

- he is a member of the Press Complaints Commission a spokesman for the tabloids

77. Wallis thinks that the tabloids succeed only when ...

- they captured the mood of the people

Файл скачан с сайта oltest.ru

